Bloorview is one of six school authorities located in Children’s Treatment Centres in Ontario and mandated under Section 68 of the Education Act. The Bloorview School Authority is not under the jurisdiction of any of the local district school boards and, as such, has its own trustees, appointed by the Minister of Education.

Trustees are normally appointed to serve four year terms. The present term commenced December 1, 2018 and will be completed on November 30, 2022. Under the Education Act, in order to be qualified as a trustee on the board, an individual must be a resident of Ontario. An individual who is an employee of a district school board or school authority, or who has been convicted of an indictable offence, is disqualified from applying.
